The Revolutionary Union or Red Union (RU) is a recently organized group. The name has not as yet been publicized but this is the name chosen by the group which comprises a covert organization at the present time. The purpose of this group is to form a revolutionary group adhering to the line of the Chinese Communist Party, and its aims are to install this Chinese Communist Party line into the political situation in the United States. The RU was formed in January or February, 1968, and LEIBEL BERGMAN and BRUCE FRANKLIN, a professor at Stanford University, were instrumental in organizing the group. Source himself started attending

(X) (U)

In addition to the San Francisco group, which source believes to be the smallest, there is a group of the RU in Palo Alto and two groups in the East Bay area. The Executive Board of the Palo Alto group consists of BRUCE FRANKLIN and [REDACTED]. Source stated that the Palo Alto group [REDACTED] in the use of (X) (U) firearms as BRUCE FRANKLIN reportedly teaches the use of a rifle to members of this group at the County Rifle Range in Pacifica, California. [redacted] reportedly assists in firearms training. (X) (U)

b6
b7C

Source indicated that the East Bay group of the RU would probably have the following individuals on the Executive Board but he is not sure who would be the actual leader:

LARRY HARRIS

[redacted]

VERN BAUN

b6
b7C

Current information would reflect that there are two RU groups in the East Bay area, one led by LARRY HARRIS, the other concentrating in the trade union area by VERN BAUN with the assistance of [redacted] and [redacted]. Membership in the HARRIS and BAUN groups may overlap.

The RU, according to source, is basically a Marxist-Leninist organization, revolutionary in character, and believing in the use of force and violence to overthrow the present political system in the United States and effect radical changes in this nation. The group believes in the necessity of violent revolution and open guerrilla warfare but only when the time for such action is right. The members have practiced and have read up on guerrilla warfare techniques and LEIBEL BERGMAN himself has expressed his opposition to gun control laws since such would make it more difficult for the RU to obtain firearms. (X) (U)

The organization basically is led and guided by BERGMAN, EARL VON HERMANN, LARRY HARRIS and VERN BAUN. All are basically old-time Stalinists of the 1930's who believe in and advocate the STALIN brand of communism of the 1930's and advocate the use of force and violence in general. They typify the classic conception of the communist in black coat and slouch hat hiding behind the bushes with a lighted bomb. They advocate a type of communism practiced long before the general membership of the RU were born and the youthful members consider this ancient history and have no conception of what they are talking about. These leaders look to Red China because the Marxist-Leninist road of China is closest to that of STALIN. However, these men have the ability to meet the youth on the youths level of political awareness. The young membership, however, at times appear impatient with the monolithic party structure advocated by BERGMAN and it appears that this situation in the future may cause a split in the RU.

SF 100-61281

Some effort is made to make the RU appear to be a democratic organization, however, with BERGMAN on the executive committee his desires usually prevail. The meetings themselves consist mainly in discussion of preassigned reading material, which material for the most part is in the "Works of Mao Tse-tung." To date the group has read and discussed "On Contradiction" and "Combat Liberalism." The reading selection for the following meeting is usually chosen by the membership.

In connection with the San Francisco local of the RU, source advised that [] and [] have engaged in firearms practice and guerrilla warfare techniques at the Point Reyes Park in Marin County. (X) (U)

Within the San Francisco local, EARL VON HERMANN acts as BERGMAN's lieutenant and recently made the statement that he wanted to obtain a M-1 carbine. (X) (U)

The present activity of the RU is to form a radical caucus within the Peace and Freedom Party to push for the presidential candidacy of ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party. Three members of the San Francisco local RU, [] and [] are close to and work with the Black Panther Party, a radical violence prone black nationalist organization.

[] was questioned as to the possibility that in view of the revolutionary character of the RU, LEIBEL BERGMAN might consider sending any of the members to Cuba, Africa or Latin American countries for revolutionary training, and source stated that BERGMAN might consider sending some to China for such training. Source indicated that nothing concrete has been mentioned in this regard though it has been mentioned in general terms that some of the membership may go to Red China in 1969 in connection with the 20th anniversary of the Chinese revolution.

With the exception of [] all of the individuals mentioned by source as members or leaders of the RU, are well known to San Francisco for their activities in the Communist Party, PLP and in the case of the young individuals in SDS, VDC and other non-left organizations and activities.

SF 100-61281

RW/cmp

It is being emphatically brought to the attention of the Bureau that the information set forth below, while circumstantially corroborating information furnished by [redacted] does not in any way corroborate the nature of the association between the various individuals nor does it in any way corroborate the violent and revolutionary nature of the RU as furnished by [redacted]

b7D
b7E

Membership in the San Francisco local of the RU, as furnished by [redacted] has been in some measure corroborated by [redacted] and by fixed fisur at [redacted] San Francisco, on 8/12/68. [redacted] has also corroborated the existence of a relationship between LEIBEL BERGMAN and BRUCE FRANKLIN, between BERGMAN and VON HERMANN, HARRIS and BAUN, and this source has also indicated that meetings are held in the East Bay area by LARRY HARRIS and VERN BAUN. On 8/6/68, [redacted] indicated that there would be a meeting at [redacted] [redacted] that this meeting did indeed take place was corroborated by spot fisur and the automobile of [redacted] was observed in the immediate vicinity of [redacted] (S) (S) (U)

b6
b7C
b7D
b7E

Because the information set forth above comes from a single source and because the revolutionary character of this organization has not been corroborated by any other source to date, no report is being submitted at this time.

Every effort is being made to determine the full extent of the activities of the RU and its individual members.

Due to the revolutionary character of the RU, as reported by [redacted] it is realized that we must endeavor to penetrate this organization with other live member sources and this office is evaluating its informants and sources, particularly in the new left organizations, in order to determine likely sources to target against this organization.

b7D
b7E

In view of the nature of the RU, a domestic non-Chinese Marxist-Leninist group espousing the militant communism of MAO Tse-tung, the Bureau may wish to consider designating a new classification, Security Matter - Chinese, in connection with individual members of the RU, while the RU, as an organization, will continue to carry the 14-00 character. It is believed by San Francisco that the [redacted], Security Matter-Chinese, would be a [redacted] [redacted] of the individual members. It is [redacted] [redacted] Security - Chinese.

SF 100-61281

in individual cases does not correctly mirror the true picture because the individuals are not working on behalf of China but merely look to China as the model of the correct revolutionary Marxist-Leninist line.

Two copies of this communication are being furnished to Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, Seattle, Minneapolis and Albuquerque, which offices are requested to thoroughly review files and ascertain whether or not any sources are available who could logically be targeted against BERGMAN and the RU. (X) (U)

On 8/6/68, [] advised that BERGMAN has other interests outside of the RU, the nature of which interests are unknown to source. However, BERGMAN did advise source that he has been contacting former STALIN-oriented Communist Party members in various parts of the country in order to attempt to reactivate them. In view of BERGMAN's utilization of old-time CP members, VON HERMANN, HARRIS and BAUN, within his local organization, it is highly likely that these contacts with old CP members could be in the nature of attempts to have them organize and guide youth groups similar to the RU. Source stated that BERGMAN, on 8/5/68, specifically mentioned [] who was formerly active in the CP in the [] area. BERGMAN spoke highly of [] and indicated great liking for him. (S) (U)

[] has indicated that BERGMAN has been in contact with [] of [] and that she visited with him in San Francisco. Source has also indicated that BERGMAN is acquainted with [] in the [] area.

It is also noted that BERGMAN was formerly very active in the CP in the Minneapolis - St. Paul area and may have re-established contact with former CP members in that area.

In view of the above, it is believed that toll call checks on [] and [] may be of value in indicating whether or not they are engaged in activities similar to BERGMAN. Recipient offices are further requested to review files on former active and revolutionary CP members with a view to determine which ones might be logical contacts for BERGMAN in his efforts to establish the RU on a nation-wide basis.

~~SECRET~~

Due to the sensitivity of the BERGMAN investigation and the necessity of protecting the identity of [REDACTED] recipient offices are cautioned that no mention of RU or LEIBEL BERGMAN should be made in any communication for dissemination outside the Bureau.

b7D
b7E

San Francisco will follow this matter closely and will continue efforts to direct live sources against the RU. San Francisco will also consider requesting technical coverage on the leaders of the various RU groups in addition to that coverage already established on LEIBEL BERGMAN.

(U)

It is further suggested that the Bureau may wish to bring the revolutionary character of the RU to the attention of the Attorney General in connection with the request for misur coverage on LEIBEL BERGMAN, inasmuch as informant advised meetings have been held at [REDACTED]

NEW RCP's New Draft Programme, Draft Constitution Published BATTLE PLAN FOR REVOLUTION!

"Seize the day, seize the hour." These words of Mao Tse-tung sum up and conclude the new Draft Programme of the Revolutionary Communist Party, USA. Together with a new Draft Constitution these documents hit the streets on March 8, 1980. They hit in a time of growing turmoil, a time of Afghanistan, Iran, of growing crisis and preparations for a world war.

Piercing through all this is a declaration of war—revolutionary war—a call to action and a battle plan for destroying the old and creating the new. This is the Programme and Constitution of a Party that has analyzed today's situation and the underlying forces and come to the conclusion that the time when things ripen may be very close—within the next decade. Our Party is now preparing—preparing to seize the time when the time is ripe to smash this rack of capitalism before it makes another torturing round. We do not intend to miss the opportunity.

Nor are we preparing simply to fight and then lose. Revolution does not come out of nowhere. Today we are battling out the possibility of winning in the future. That is not only the significance behind this programme and constitution, but behind why they are appearing now—as May Day Brigades take to the streets and the battle shapes up that will result in thousands of workers and others across the country on the streets on May 1st—International Workers Day. This May Day battle, the study and use of the Programme and Constitution, and all the actions of the advanced, will in no small part determine how far along we are and whether we are able to break through all the way when conditions fully ripen and the opportunity for revolution is there to seize.

In this light, the purpose and nature of this new Draft Programme stands out starkly. It urgently calls attention to and analyzes the immediate situation facing the working class and masses in this country, in the context of the world situation and world struggle. It sharply indicates the only road forward out of

PROGRAMME AND
REVOLUTIONARY COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

(DRAFTS FOR DISCUSSION)

this proletarian revolution—by making a clear and concrete summation of what such a revolution will mean. The Programme spells out how the proletarian revolution, upon achieving success and winning power, will deal with the needs and demands of the masses of people and with the world situation we face.

Of course communists are not fortune tellers, and this Programme cannot and does not say precisely what immediate problems will have to be addressed, in what order and relation to each other, and every concrete and specific step that will be required to bring about a revolutionary resolution of a revolutionary crisis.

But it can—and does—address the basic questions we can already see shaping up. How will unemployment be eliminated? Discrimination and national oppression? The oppression of women? How will agriculture be dealt with? How will industry be organized? Given the likelihood of world war, how will the revolutionary government get out of it? What will be the policies toward education, culture, the rights of the people? All these urgent questions are addressed—their solutions are indicated.

The constitution deals with the basic line of the Party, its principles, the tasks and duties of the Party and Party members in relation to the historical task of revolution and communism and to the masses of people who must carry out that task.

This new Programme and Constitution are themselves the product of a revolutionary process. They are not the first, but the second, programme and constitution of our Party in the 5 years of its existence. The previous ones, we can now see, had many shortcomings. But the need to change these documents should not be seen mainly negatively. Instead it is a real advance, breaking with not only our own past errors, but even more importantly with tendencies which have existed throughout the history of the communist movement internationally—a movement which, in many parts, has been caked with a thick layer of crusty reformism. These tendencies, more like a gross disease in the case of the old C.P. in the USA, have prevented any serious preparation for revolution in this country.

There have also been big changes in the world. Most importantly the world situation has sharpened greatly, underlining the urgency of a thoroughly revolutionary line and programme, one that will stand up through the storms.

Another of the great changes has been the reversal of the revolution in China with the reactionary coup after the death of Mao Tsetung. This was a major setback, but it also put revolutionaries worldwide to the test—to go down the drain with the revisionists or to advance in another wave. As with all such tests, the revolutionary movement internationally and in this country has split—with part going each road. But our Party in particular, after much struggle, has emerged much stronger, more united around the revolutionary leadership of its Chairman, Bob Avakian, and much broader in its revolutionary influence. This is as it must be, because we must all race from behind to catch up.

These documents are drafts, weapons in preparation. We are spreading them widely and deeply so that many among the working class and others oppressed by this monster, imperialism, will seriously study them, take them up and help sharpen them. By the beginning of April, the Spanish language drafts will be ready and the process of circulating these drafts will go on for a short time after May First.

Study these drafts, write us, meet with us to criticize and strengthen them—and unite with us to carry them out.

The character of this investigation has been changed for Bureau routing purposes from Internal Security - China (IS - CH) to Internal Security - Revolutionary Union (IS - RU).

ReSFairtel 8/15/68 setting out background on the Revolutionary Union (RU).

Bulet to San Francisco 8/14/68, copies not furnished other offices, instructed that because of the radical and covert character of the RU, and its reported fanatical nature, the organization and its membership must be afforded expeditious investigation and all pertinent information must be disseminated to the Department and interested agencies at an early date. Information incorporated into reports and other communications to be disseminated outside the Bureau may be paraphrased and classified in a manner to protect sources, techniques and the continuing sensitive investigations of both the RU and suspected Chicom agent Leibel Berghman. Bulet 8/14/68 instructed San Francisco to submit a summary of all information developed relating to the RU within 30 days and an investigative report within 60 days. (X)

SFAirtel 8/15/68 will suffice as the requested summary and San Francisco should submit an investigative report suitable for dissemination on the RU on or before 10/14/68.

Pertinent information developed through [redacted] and Chicago informants should be incorporated, paraphrased as necessary, into the RU report and reports on RU members. (X) U

b7D
 b7E

Where not already on the Security Index, identified RU members must be promptly recommended for inclusion and tabbed to indicate a Chicam orientation. Current reports should be also prepared on RU members who have been identified as participating in firearms and/or guerrilla warfare training and where appropriate these should include a precautionary statement indicating the subject's propensity for violence.

Careful consideration has been given to San Francisco's suggestion that the character "Security Matter - China (SI-CH)" be established for individual members of the RU. Generally speaking, a country or nationality designation in the character of an investigation, as opposed to an organizational designation, indicates an affiliation or intelligence association with a foreign nation as the principal. However, past Bureau practice has utilized the character SI primarily in investigation of members of domestic subversive groups. The Bureau sees no advantage at this time in adopting the new character "SI-CH."

The Bergman investigation, because of its foreign Chicam intelligence ramifications, should continue to carry the "SI-CH" character. As the RU is a domestic pre-Chicam oriented group, the new "IS-RU" character is being designated as noted in the caption of this letter. Future reports on individual RU members, assuming RU membership is the principal or most significant activity, should contain the character "Security Matter - RU (SI-RU)" except if the member is designated as a Top Functionary when the character would be "Internal Security - RU (IS-RU)." DETAILS

This investigation was predicated upon information furnished by SF T-1 in July, 1968, that a covert Marxist-Leninist organization, the Revolutionary Union, known to its membership as the Red Union (RU) was formed in January or February, 1968, and advocates the overthrow of the United States Government by force and violence. (S)(U)

The information set forth below was furnished during the period July 24 through October 8, 1968 (SF T-1, T-2 & T-4). (S)(U)

I. ORIGIN AND PURPOSE

The Revolutionary Union, commonly known to its members as the Red Union, was formed in January or February, 1968, by LEIBEL BERGMAN and HOWARD BRUCE FRANKLIN as a covert Marxist-Leninist (M-L) group following the line of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and seeking to instill the line of the CCP into the political situation in the United States.

The ultimate aim of the RU is to overthrow the present form of government in the United States and the institutions of this nation and replace it with a society based upon the tenets of MARX and LENIN as interpreted by MAO TSE-TUNG, chairman of the Central Committee of the CCP. To achieve this purpose, the RU believes in and advocates the use of force and violence in the form of open guerrilla warfare.

SF T-1 (S) (U)

II. ORGANIZATION

From its inception until June, 1968, the RU met as a group in the homes of various individuals, but at the fifth meeting it was decided that the group was becoming too large and should be broken down into smaller groups. As currently organized, the RU consists of three groups or locals -- San Francisco, Palo Alto, and East Bay -- which meet individually. (S) (U)

Periodically the three groups meet together in an area meeting, the last such meeting being held on September 8, 1968. Each group has an Executive Committee of two, and the San Francisco Local has a treasurer. The six individuals comprising the local Executive Committees form the Area Executive Committee. (S) (U)

IV. FINANCES

The RU has no financial backing outside of dues collected from the membership. Dues are assessed at 3 per cent per annum of income after taxes, and LEIBEL BERGMAN, who is unemployed, contributes $10.00 per month. The locals collect and maintain their own dues but contribute one-third to the area organization. The RU as an organization has no bank account. [redacted] of the

V. IDEOLOGY AND EDUCATION

The RU is basically a militant M-L organization, revolutionary in character, and believing in the use of force and violence to overthrow the present political system in the United States and effect radical changes in this nation. The membership believes in the necessity of violent revolution and open guerrilla warfare but only when the time is right. There is no known direct connection between the RU and the CCP, however the RU is Peking orientated in that it looks to Red China as the model of the correct revolutionary M-L line, and the weekly education classes are based upon the works of MAO TSE-TUNG.

Nothing definite has been stated, but there has been general discussion in the RU as to the possibility of sending some RU members to Red China in 1969 in connection with the 20th Anniversary of the People's Republic of China.

SF T-4 (X)(U)

Ideological leadership in the RU is given by LEIBEL BERGMAN, EARL VON HERMANN, LARRY HARRIS, and VERN BAUN, all former long-time members of the Communist Party U.S.A. (CPUSA), who broke with the CP at the time of the Sino-Soviet split. These four men are hard-line Stalinists and advocate the revolutionary Marxism-Leninism of the 1930's. The youthful membership of the RU is sometimes impatient with the monolithic, authoritarian and dogmatic Stalinism of BERGMAN, who advocates a brand of Marxism-Leninism, recounts experiences and cites examples that predate the birth of most of the RU membership; however these men have the ability to meet the youth on the youth's level of political awareness.

SF T-1 (X)(U)

[redacted] a member of the RU, has characterized LEIBEL BERGMAN as the Ideological Leader. (X)(U)

b6
b7c

SF T-3, 5/13/68 (X)(U)

SF 100-61281
BW/med

The San Francisco Local of the RU holds weekly education classes on Tuesday evenings, generally at [redacted] San Francisco. Discussion at these classes is based upon pre-assigned readings in the works of MAO TSE-TUNG. As of September 25, 1968, the following works of MAO have been read and discussed:

b6
b7C

"On Contradiction"

"Combat Liberalism" (X) (U)

"The Role of the Chinese Communist Party in the National War" (X) (U)

Some writings of STALIN have also been utilized.

LEIBEL BERGMAN does not, as a rule, attend the education classes of the San Francisco Local, which classes are held under the leadership of [redacted] BERGMAN appears to trust [redacted] and believes that the latter has a thorough grasp of Marxism-Leninism and hews to the correct line or interpretation. The STALIN texts are borrowed by the RU membership wherever they can obtain them. The Chinese material is usually purchased in person by [redacted] from China Books and Periodicals on 24th Street, San Francisco. (X) (U)

b6
b7C

SF T-1 (X) (U)

For information on China Books and Periodicals, see Appendix. (X) (U)

The San Francisco Local education class on September 24, 1968, was held at [redacted] and was based on pre-assigned reading from MAO TSE-TUNG's "The Role of the Chinese Communist Party in the National War." The discussion centered on the United Front and the control of the United Front by the CP. One can easily see that there are various shades of definitions among the RU membership. LEIBEL BERGMAN defines such concepts as

b6
b7C

SF 100-61281
BW/med

democracy and freedom along the straight CP lines of the party schools he attended in the 1930's, while the youthful members have a glowing, idealized Utopian definition. (X) (U)

The reception of theory in the classes is quite varied. VI. BELIEF IN FORCE AND VIOLENCE

Members of the RU have read up on and practiced guerrilla warfare techniques, and LEIBEL BERGMAN, founder and mentor of the RU, has expressed his opposition to gun control laws since such would make it more difficult for the RU to obtain firearms.

SF T-4 (X) (U)

EARL VON HERMANN, of the San Francisco Local of the RU, has stated that any traitor to the RU would be killed. VON HERMANN, an old time Stalinist, talks in terms of violence and murder and stated that he wants to obtain a M-1 carbine. (X) (U)

A characterization of the BPP is found in the Appendix.

The Palo Alto Local of the RU, under the leadership of BRUCE FRANKLIN, recently organized the Citizen's Committee to Defend the Second Amendment (CCDSA), utilizing a Redwood City, California, address. The purpose of the CCDSA is to combat the passage of any gun control laws and according to FRANKLIN has had quite a lot of success with the petitions it has already passed around. FRANKLIN indicated that signers of the petitions included Minutemen, members of the John Birch Society, gun buffs, and sportsmen. In connection with the CCDSA, LEIBEL BERGMAN made the remark that oftentimes the extreme right wing can be a valuable recruiting ground for the CP once its members have become politically aroused. (S) (U)

SF T-1 (S) (U)

At the area meeting of the RU in September, 1968, BRUCE FRANKLIN reported on the progress of the CCDSA, obviously pleased with the progress of the group. This report was the cause of a violent verbal clash between FRANKLIN and BERGMAN, who wants the Palo Alto group to "cool" such activities. In the ensuing argument, it was clear that FRANKLIN and his Palo Alto Local believe that the revolution should start tomorrow and are sincerely interested in obtaining and using firearms. BERGMAN, on the other hand, believes in the use of force and violence in theory and ideology, but only when the time is right for this tactic. BERGMAN appeared to appreciate and fear the harm precipitant action would cause in the context of the swing to the right among the general public. The East Bay group, on the whole, was neutral on this question, though LARRY HARRIS expressed agreement with BERGMAN. (X)(U)

SF T-2 (X)(U)

On September 17, 1968, BRUCE FRANKLIN discussed in general terms the acquisition of firearms and suggested that such could be obtained by stealing them from the right wing organizations such as the Minutemen. FRANKLIN also mentioned the possibility of stealing weapons from an armory. FRANKLIN mentioned an instance when he was driving down the highway and observed an Army truck in front of him with the back end open. FRANKLIN observed several M-16 rifles in racks in the truck and noted that the weapons were unattended. At this time FRANKLIN also stated that he has engaged in firearms practice but when queried as to where merely stated, "Just around." (X)(U)

SF T-5, 9/18/68 (X)(U)

VII. RECRUITMENT

The RU is continuing active attempts to recruit new members among the militant new left groups in the Bay Area. Recruitment is on two levels -- local and area. The local groups, on the recommendations of two members, may recruit promising individuals who are not widely known as left wing activists; however, if a candidate is a well-known activist, his candidacy must be handled on an area level.

The San Francisco Local does considerable recruiting in the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP).

The PFP is an anti-Vietnam War party which has obtained sufficient signatures to be on the ballot in California for the elections of November, 1968.

SF 100-61281
BW/med

The Palo Alto Local looks to the Peninsula Red Guards as a recruiting ground. In the Palo Alto area, the Peninsula Red Guard and the RU are somewhat analogous to the Young Communist League and the CP.

The Young Communist League and the CP both have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Peninsula Red Guard was formed by BRUCE FRANKLIN at Stanford University during 1967. It consists of approximately 15 groups of from five to six individuals per group. No one in any group knows the membership of any other group. The 15 group leaders meet with BRUCE FRANKLIN. The Red Guards study the works of MAO TSE-TUNG and endeavor to apply his dictums to the United States situation. They believe in the use of force and violence and in guerrilla warfare. The M-L understanding of the Red Guard on the whole is on a quite low level. (X)(U)

SF T-4 (X)(U)

VIII. MEETINGS

The San Francisco Local of the RU holds regular meetings every second Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Generally, these meetings were held at [redacted] San Francisco, but the meetings of September 11, 1968, and September 25, 1968, were held in the home of [redacted] San Francisco, and the meeting of October 9, 1968, is scheduled to be held in the home of [redacted] San Francisco. The main topics of discussion at these meetings has been the role of the RU in the Peace and Freedom Party and the work of the RU with the BPP. (X)(U)

At the RU meeting on September 11, 1968, chaired by LEIBEL BERGMAN, the main topics of discussion were:

1. The future of the PFP after the elections. It was generally agreed that PFP will continue after the elections and that the RU must continue to work closely with the PFP through the radical caucus.

2. The future of the RU. [] suggested that after the first of the year an attempt be made to form a new national M-L party uniting all M-L groups including the RU. This new party, as [] sees it, would be roughly an all-white parallel to the Black Panthers, working closely with the Black Panthers, and at approximately the same level of M-L theory. LEIBEL BERGMAN's reception of this proposal was quite cool and source believes that this is because BERGMAN does not want any coalition which he cannot control. No decision has been made to date on this proposal.

3. The need to broaden the base of the RU by friendly contacts with other activist organizations.

4. The dichotomy between the intelligensia and "the street people" such as the Berkeley activists. The RU membership looks on the street people as basically anarchists, individuals who are just generally against government and the establishment, and who operate on a very low M-L theoretical level. The RU feels that they must make contact with these street people in order to guide and control them and to utilize their militant enthusiasm.

SF T-2

The RU has held six meetings on the area level, the last being held at the home of [] on [] [] members were present, five absent, and the meeting was chaired by BRUCE FRANKLIN, Professor from Stanford University. The following special reports were delivered:

SF 100-61281

The Palo Alto Local indicated far more activity than the other two groups. BRUCE FRANKLIN furnished a printed throw-away concerning the picketing of a movie theatre in Palo Alto. This throw-away was sponsored by the Committee for the Liberation of Downtown Palo Alto and was supported by the Mid-Peninsula Free University, Peace and Freedom Movement of San Mateo County, Peace and Freedom Movement of Santa Clara County, and "The Peninsula Observer." FRANKLIN stated that the Palo Alto Local controls the above four organizations and has close ties with "The Peninsula Observer". BRUCE FRANKLIN also reported on the Citizen's Committee to Defend the Second Amendment, an anti-gun control law organization, initiated by the Palo Alto local. (X) (U)

There was some discussion of the Soviet-Czech situation and LARRY HARRIS passed out Xerox copies of "Peking Review" Number 34, 1968, to those who do not subscribe to that periodical. This supplement sets out the Chinese position on the Soviet-Czech crisis and is both anti-Soviet and anti-Czech. (X) (U)

In this connection, source noted that in conversation with BERGMAN soon after the Soviet-Czech crisis, the latter defended the Soviet action as saving the Czech people from revisionism and a return to capitalism. However, after the Chinese position became known, BERGMAN did a reversal and condemned the Soviet action. (X) (U)

There was a certain amount of friction present during the area meeting. BRUCE FRANKLIN held firm control of the meeting and at times was short with BERGMAN. LEIBEL BERGMAN tends to be quite verbose and talks for a long time and this was resented by the youth. BERGMAN, as founder of the organization, appeared somewhat chagrined that he did not receive the deference he feels is due him. LARRY HARRIS showed himself as dedicated, active, and having a good sense of humor. It was obvious that he enjoys good relations with his East Bay group. BRUCE FRANKLIN showed himself as completely dedicated, intelligent and as highly regarded by his Palo Alto Local; however he is impatient, willful, and lives in a dream world of revolution. (X) (U)

IX. MEMBERSHIP

During the period July 24, 1968, to October 8, 1968, SF T-1, SF T-2, and SF T-4 advised that the following individuals are known to them as current active members of the RU:

1. San Francisco Local

LEIBEL BERGMAN
997 - 14th Street;
San Francisco

LEIBEL BERGMAN was born May 5, 1915, at Grand Forks, North Dakota.

The St. Paul, Minnesota, 1948 City Directory, published by the R.L. Polk and Company, contains a listing for "BERGMAN, LEIBEL (ANN), Chairman, Communist Party, 274 - 14th".

A book of LEIBEL BERGMAN's poems entitled "I Cannot See Their Faces & Keep Silent" was copyrighted by him in 1946 and published by Prometheus Press, St. Paul, Minnesota. The final page contains notes from the author, among which is the following: "Nor does the author desire to indicate that his philosophy is a Christ-like, Gandhi-like acquiescence to injustice. His philosophy is actually very active and calls for the physical destruction of his enemies."

LEIBEL BERGMAN was an active CP leader in the San Francisco County CP during the period 1957-60.

LEIBEL BERGMAN, under the name HENRY COHEN, was living at the Friendship House, Room 422, Peking, China, and was unemployed but seeking employment in Peking.

SF T-12, 11/65

In November, 1967, LEIBEL BERGMAN stated that he traveled to China by air via Moscow in 1965 and arrived back in the United States in early October, 1967. He stated that his reason for returning to the United States was that he had promised his friends the Chinese that he would do a job for them. BERGMAN stated that the struggle between United States imperialism and China would obviously continue for many years to come before it would be resolved in the destruction of imperialism. According to BERGMAN, because the struggle must be recognized in this light, it is necessary to make plans for the future, and a youth cadre must be selected, trained and held in reserve for China's future utilization.

Concerning this youth cadre, BERGMAN stated that it must be selected from the most promising youth in the United States who recognize the correctness of the Chinese position and desire to participate in bringing true Marxism-Leninism to the United States. He stated that the youth selected would be trained in China and would then be returned to the United States where they would not be utilized for political action for possibly many years. BERGMAN characterized the youth to be selected as those not well known in the left wing movement today but who must have some knowledge of the movement and sympathetic to Communist China.

LEIBEL BERGMAN stated that he is gratified to see the increasing number of blacks studying the works of MAO TSE-TUNG and expressed the opinion that many are obtaining an understanding of Marxism-Leninism. BERGMAN indicated that he personally has met with the Black Panther Party in the San Francisco area and regards them as a wonderful bunch of militants, indicating that he is active in a white youth organization in the San Francisco area which has communication with the Black Panthers, whom they greatly admire.

SF T-15, 4/9 - 12/68

LEIBEL BERGMAN stated that he is vitally interested in selecting a small cadre of American youth to be sent to China for training. These youths should be politically true to China but should not have acquired a subversive reputation with the United States Government.

SF T-15, 4/9 - 12/68

LEIBEL BERGMAN stated that in selecting youth to be sent to China for training, the paramount characteristics sought are loyalty and attitude. Of lesser importance is the intellectual capacity or academic mastery of Marxism-Leninism; however any candidate being given serious consideration must be completely familiar with the Chinese Communist political line.

The records of the Naturalization Service, Bronx County Courthouse, Bronx County, New York, as of August 14, 1943, reflected that ELIASER HARRIS, also known as LARRY HARRIS, was born on September 7, 1923, in Canada.

LARRY HARRIS joined the Young Communist League at New York City College in 1941 and sometime during 1943 joined the CP. In 1945 he was transferred to the Waterfront Section of the CP in New York City and remained in that group until expelled in 1948. His expulsion was upheld by the New York State Trial Commission and by the National Review Commission of the CP. From 1946 until 1957, LARRY HARRIS continued his attempts to be readmitted into the CP and in late 1957 was readmitted as a member of the Hyde Park Section of the CP in Chicago, Illinois. The informants met BERGMAN for lunch after which they proceeded to informants' hotel room for extended discussions lasting about four hours.

The informants mentioned that [] had apparently received an invitation to [] and he had complained in his recent newsletter that the invitation was a phoney. BERGMAN said he had heard of this matter and related that [] of [] had also received an invitation. [] got in touch with [] on the matter and [] contacted BERGMAN while [] was scurrying around trying to raise $1,100 to make the trip. BERGMAN said he advised [] to tell [] it was a phoney. b7D

In passing, BERGMAN mentioned that he didn't care for [] adding that he does a good job with the Draft Resistors, but he is too subjective. On the other hand, he thinks very highly of [] of []

b7C

BERGMAN spoke of his group, the Revolutionary Union. He said they have a physician and a team of medical students who have performed illegal operations on those comrades wounded in battle with the police. He said they are very competent and are able to perform complex operations--even brain surgery, if necessary. BERGMAN mentioned that white people in San Francisco are purchasing arms for the militant blacks.

In his group, the RU, there are about 30 people divided into three groupings with one each in Berkeley-Oakland-Richmond area; in San Francisco, and Palo Alto. He said they hope to have another group organized in the Los Angeles area in the near future.

BERGMAN then spoke of a young man formerly from San Francisco who went to [redacted] and was [redacted] person [redacted] is going to [redacted] He said this [redacted] He asked the informants if they [redacted] had anyone in [redacted] with whom this individual could make contact. They replied that [redacted] forces in [redacted] are at present in a state of disorganization; whereupon BERGMAN said in that case he would put him in touch with [redacted] (BERGMAN contacted [redacted] in the fall of 1967 shortly after his return from China.)

BERGMAN also mentioned a young ^{MAN}Chinese now residing in San Francisco, whose mother and stepfather are residing in China. He said this young ^{MAN}Chinese has briefed him on the Cultural revolution in China. He commented that it appears that everything in the Cultural Revolution worked except the youth and student part and they could only carry it so far before they began to vacillate. He added that only among the working class can there be found consistent revolutionary forces.

BERGMAN complained that he was having difficulty communicating with China. He said "if I write to them obliquely, they answer obliquely; if I write direct, they answer obliquely." BERGMAN added that he would probably have to make a trip there in the future to straighten this out.

The informants told him of the tentatively scheduled meeting in Chicago being organized by [redacted] which will feature [redacted] as speaker. BERGMAN said it was okay to have [redacted] address the meeting; however, he had heard that she is connected with a Trotskyite group in New York, and he is doing some checking on this matter. b6 b7C b7D

BERGMAN spoke of the PLP. He said he is at a loss to understand why China and Albania are pushing the PLP. He mentioned that he is going to check out a story he had heard to the effect that some of the leadership of PLP had received training in the Soviet Union just a short time prior to joining the PLP. [redacted] told BERGMAN that [redacted] had some information on this from a member of the Executive Committee of [redacted] who recently learned from CPUSA sources that [redacted] received training at a school in [redacted] and after he returned to the U.S. he was placed in a leadership position in PLP. [redacted] reported this information to [redacted] at a recent meeting). BERGMAN was very interested in this information and asked the informants if they had relayed this information to the "people in Paris." (Chicom b6 b7C b7D b7E

Embassy, Paris). When they said they had not, he said he would get the information to the people concerned.

BERGMAN complimented the informants on the role of [redacted]. He said [redacted] is doing a real good job, that it is the only organization in this country fighting revisionism on its own grounds. The informants mentioned that in recent months, [redacted] has shifted emphasis away from work within the Party to work outside the Party in the mass, radical movements. They told him of [redacted] "work" among black labor organizations, the role of [redacted] in the recent school boycotts of the black students, the building of "left centers" in trade unions and community organizations, etc. BERGMAN was highly impressed with the "work" of [redacted] but he cautioned them not to underestimate the CPUSA, "They still have important forces." He mentioned as examples professional people, youth, and Negroes.

He said he liked the Chairman's report printed in the October edition of the "Ad Hoc Bulletin (M-L)" which dealt with the rising fascist danger in the U.S.

He spoke of [redacted] from San Diego who has become the ideological leader of the New Left. He said [redacted] is not all that important, but cautioned that if any criticism of him is printed in the "Ad Hoc Bulletin" it should be done only on M-L grounds.

In order to impress BERGMAN with the work of [redacted] and to get a reaction from him on the question of correctness of individual acts of violence in the struggles, [redacted] fabricated a story dealing with a mythical [redacted] youth who was beaten by the Chicago Police during the disturbances surrounding the Democratic National Convention. He told BERGMAN that this youth is dead set on revenge and talks of getting a machine gun and shooting up the Chicago Police Station. BERGMAN's immediate reaction was "Get rid of him!"

BERGMAN spoke of the Black Panther Party (BPP). He said the BPP is falling apart in the San Francisco area because of the jailings of the leadership. He said [redacted] is incapable of holding the organization together in that area. He noted that the BPP is strong in New York and Chicago.

On the subject of Cuba, BERGMAN spoke briefly. He said Cuba is doing better but they are still making mistakes. He didn't elaborate.

On the subject of Americans residing in China, BERGMAN said [] is in jail and "is no good." [] is a "sneak". He is probably under house arrest. He thinks that these two ignoble renegades originally gained prestige with the Chicom leadership because of their association with [] who he characterized as okay.

b7C

On the violence in San Francisco State College, BERGMAN was elated with this struggle. He said [] was in San Francisco and addressed the militants before the recent troubles began. [] told them "Don't fall into the white man's bag of occupying buildings. (Reference probably to SDS actions at Columbia University). Keep your cool, and I don't want any heroes." BERGMAN stated that every day or so the leadership of the militants at the college is changed and informant interpreted this as an order coming from [] (This tactic may have been instituted to keep the violence sustained over a long period of time in anticipation that police would arrest leaders early in the fight.)

b6

BERGMAN said the struggles at San Francisco State College is a great school for revolution and is setting the example for future insurrections.

The informants told BERGMAN about the progress made in [] by [] They told BERGMAN they would like for this youth to come to San Francisco and stay around awhile to learn from BERGMAN's operation--organizational techniques, etc. BERGMAN said if he would come to San Francisco next week, he could have him in charge of the BPP within a month. The informants assured him that he had important functions in [] and in a joking manner, they accused BERGMAN of trying to latch on to one of their important people. BERGMAN indicated that now would be a bad time for [] youth to come to San Francisco because of organizational problems, but he left the door open for a possible future visit by the PSI. At this time [] told BERGMAN he wanted the PSI to come to San Francisco to learn from BERGMAN, not to become a member of a group there. He added, "after all, you are the leading revolutionary figure in this country" to which suggestion BERGMAN readily agreed.

b7C
b7D
b7E

The informants gave to BERGMAN the covert Post Office Box number of [] through which important messages could be sent. They also gave him the name and address of []

b7D
b7E

CG 100-41353

BERGMAN indicated he would get in touch with this informant, and he also asked for the new address of [redacted] Informants b7D b7E promised to send this address to him when they returned home.

It will be recalled that some months ago, BERGMAN gave [redacted] $500.00, part of which was to have been used for financing the travels in [redacted] of [redacted] on behalf of the Chicoms, after the informant had returned to [redacted] from [redacted] following [redacted] last May. BERGMAN believes that $100 of this sum was actually given to [redacted] by [redacted] leaving the balance of $400. BERGMAN told the informant that he needed this money and asked that it be sent to him. [redacted] wrote him a personal check for the full amount, $400. b7D b7E

BERGMAN indicated that he was in contact with [redacted] of [redacted] and indicated that [redacted] should contact [redacted] through [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

ReSFairtel 12/9/68 captioned [REDACTED] furnishing information relating to the distribution of pen-type tear gas weapons modified to fire .22 caliber projectiles. Reairtel indicated these weapons originate with an unidentified group in Los Angeles, reportedly are part of a stolen shipment obtained by the group which is closely connected with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and that SDS activist [REDACTED] is among those modifying the pen-type gas guns which are to be furnished free to militants.

Los Angeles should intensify investigations to identify the group reportedly distributing these weapons, to determine the origin of the pen-type tear gas guns, and also to determine the identities of individuals in possession of the weapons.

Los Angeles and San Francisco should immediately alert local authorities including Army Intelligence, Secret Service, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, and established local police contacts regarding the allegation that these weapons are currently in the process of being distributed among militants.

Any information provided should be paraphrased and/or appropriately classified to protect the identity of [REDACTED] who at this time is [REDACTED] as well as the identity of the sensitive RU investigation. Additionally,

Los Angeles and San Francisco should be alert to develop evidence of violations of the Federal Firearms Act, as well as the State Firearms Control Assistance Act, which takes effect 12/16/68.

Information developed regarding the circulation of these weapons must be promptly incorporated into LHM form, suitable for dissemination, and furnished to the Bureau under appropriate caption. In each instance for purpose of coordination, a copy of the cover communication forwarding the LHM to the Bureau should be designated for the Bufile on the RU.

Inquiry of sections at the Bureau responsible for investigations involving Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, Theft from Interstate Shipment, and firearms matters has not developed any information identifying a theft of pen-type tear gas weapons in the California area.

San Francisco must follow this matter closely with [redacted] to determine all pertinent information available to [redacted]. Although it is understandable the informant has a fear for [redacted] life, it should be impressed upon [redacted] the possibility of violence as a result of these weapons makes it vital that all information be furnished to the FBI immediately. The Bureau must be promptly advised of the identity of the individual who made these weapons available to the informant.

Los Angeles and San Francisco should insure investigative personnel responsible for coverage of militant left-wing and black nationalist organizations and their memberships are alerted to the existence of the pen-type modified .22 caliber weapons. requests which could be interpreted as restrictions, upon recipients of information prepared in connection with this investigation. This is particularly true in the case of the RU, a militant violence-prone organization, members of which have been reported engaging in firearms and guerrilla warfare training and in the accumulation of firearms. The classification of the document in itself, as well as the property statement precluding distribution of contents outside a recipient agency, should sufficiently protect the Bureau's investigative interest. The Bureau does not want to be placed in a position whereby any recipient of FBI disseminated material could rationalize or otherwise endeavor to explain away a failure to take action within its responsibilities and jurisdiction, based upon an erroneous interpretation of FBI cautions included with the disseminated material.

The current covert nature of the RU and its belief it is operating without FBI scrutiny, offers an opportunity to penetrate the organization and identify its membership in the early stage of its formation. However, this opportunity is only temporary for the RU has discussed surfacing and Bergman has indicated it will surface as soon as a method is agreed upon. Also, the RU is rapidly becoming known to a broad spectrum of the left-wing. At a Communist Party (CP) meeting on 7/23/68, a member of the Northern Californian District CP Committee described the RU cells and indicated the Party should infiltrate the organization. On 10/5/68, the RU leadership met with representatives of the Black Panther Party and the American Liberation Front to consider a merger. There are indications the RU is known to the Peace and Freedom Party, the Progressive Workers Movement of Canada, to individuals affiliated with "The Movement," and to individuals affiliated with the Committee of Correspondence led by [redacted]. It is significant to note an individual contacted the Palo Alto RA on 12/11/68 indicating a personal knowledge of RU leader Bruce Franklin and a knowledge of the highly covert Red Guards, the youth affiliate of the RU. PEN-TYPE TEAR GAS WEAPONS
MODIFIED TO FIRE .22
CALIBER PROJECTILES
INFORMATION CONCERNING

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in early December 1968 that pen-type gas weapons are being modified to fire .22 caliber projectiles. The tear gas guns, stamped "Made in Italy" are being modified in the Southern California area, and are reportedly to be distributed statewide, free of charge, to militant activists who desire them.

These weapons are metal and approximately 4 5/8" in length. The clip of the pen is attached to a threaded cap, approximately one inch in length with a milled edge. The other end of the pen has a threaded, milled insert approximately 1/2" in length. The interior of the pen has a coil spring approximately 3 1/8" in length.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Enclosed for the Bureau are eight copies of a LHM concerning West Coast distribution of pen-type tear gas weapons modified to fire .22 caliber projectiles. Also enclosed are two copies each for the San Francisco and San Diego Divisions.

For information of the San Diego Division, the unmodified tear gas guns are allegedly part of a stolen shipment and are being modified by individuals closely connected with Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) in the Los Angeles area.

Because of its proximity to the Los Angeles Division and the presence of SDS Chapters in the San Diego area, the San Diego Division should insure investigative personnel responsible for coverage of militant left-wing and Black Nationalist organizations and their membership are alerted to the ~~existence~~ of the pen-type modified .22 caliber weapons.

For the information of the Denver, Detroit, Phoenix, and San Antonio Divisions, the Revolutionary Union (RU), commonly known as the Red Union, was organized in the San Francisco area during the early part of 1968 as a covert Marxist-Leninist group which planned to follow the line of Chinese Communist Party. Its ultimate goal is to overthrow the present form of government in the United States and replace it with a government based on the tenets of Marxist-Leninist as interpreted by MAO TSE-TUNG.

To achieve its goal the RU believes in and advocates force and violence in the form of open guerrilla warfare. Leaders of the RU are all former long-time members of the Communist Part, USA, who broke with the Party as a result of the Sino-Soviet split.

Re Los Angeles airtel and LHM dated 12/24/68.

The following steps have been taken to determine the source of the pen-type tear gas weapons modified to fire .22 caliber projectiles:

Los Angeles indices contain no information concerning thefts of pen-type tear gas weapons.

On 12/20/68, RUSSELL SCHMELTZER, Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), Intelligence Unit, and HOWARD GILLESPIE, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office (LACSO), Intelligence Unit, were alerted concerning this matter. They could furnish no information concerning any reported thefts of pen-type tear gas guns. They further advised they doubted whether these weapons were stolen in California, as possession of such weapon is a felony, and they cannot legally be imported for sale in California.

On 1/6/69, LAPD and LACSO Intelligence Divisions advised all patrol units had been notified and in no instance has such a weapon been located on any arrestee. During this period approximately 30 to 40 militants, both Negro and Caucasian, have been arrested.

SF T-1 further advised that FRANKLIN also stated that the Palo Alto local of the Revolutionary Union also has a case of MACE, the belt-type cannisters, which they obtained for $7.00 per can. They obtained the MACE from an unnamed individual who ordered the MACE from Alabama, had it shipped to Oregon and then brought it to Palo Alto by bus. According to SF T-1, identifying labels have been removed from the MACE cannisters.

According to SF T-1, there is a mounting feeling toward surfacing within the Revolutionary Union membership but LEIBEL BERGMAN, co-founder of the Revolutionary Union, is very much opposed to surfacing. BERGMAN is attempting to work out a compromise solution before the area meeting whereby those who feel that they must surface be permitted to do so while those who wish to maintain the clandestine nature of their Revolutionary Union membership be permitted to do so.

The LHM has been classified ~~"SECRET"~~ in accordance with Bureau instructions in order to protect the sensitive identity of [] and the sensitive LEIBEL BERGMAN intelligence investigation.

b7D
b7E

It is noted that in the attached LHM characterizations of individuals referred to in the LHM have not been set forth inasmuch as characterizations were set forth in San Francisco report 10/17/68, which report has already been disseminated to indicated recipients.

San Francisco will continue to follow this matter closely with [] in an effort to ascertain the number of weapons purchased by FRANKLIN and his group at the Mountain View Gun Show and in order to attempt to determine the location of the RU's armcache and of the C-4 explosive.

b7E

In connection with the 140 investigation of [] [] San Francisco has previously recommended that the 140 investigation be postponed until after the January area meeting of the RU in order that the current status of [] within the RU may be ascertained. In this connection, San Francisco further wishes to point out that should the RU decide at the area meeting that they should surface subsequent loyalty investigation of [] may be conducted without jeopardizing []

b6
b7C
b7D
b7E

It is noted that San Francisco has made recommendation for sensitive coverage of BRUCE FRANKLIN and it is believed that the information set forth in attached LHM will buttress San Francisco's recommendation and the Bureau may wish to call this to the attention of the department.

In connection with the continuing investigation of the RU, San Francisco has been considering interviews with selective members in the three locals looking toward developing additional informants or, if unsuccessful, causing disruption. However, on 12/19/68, [] advised that an area meeting of the RU has been scheduled for 1/12/69, and that the main topic of discussion set for this area meeting is the surfacing of the RU. Informant noted that LEIBEL BERGMAN is greatly opposed to surfacing and wishes to maintain the clandestine nature of this organization. Informant again emphasized the adverse impact of the attempt to interview [] and the subsequent serving of a subpoena upon [] again

b7C
b7D
b7E

SF 100-61281

BW/cmp

indicating that BERGMAN and [] are quite "shaken" over this. It is further noted that [] advised that at the last executive committee meeting of the RU, the San Francisco local was criticized for its lack of action as a collective. San Francisco believes that any action by this office prior to the 1/12/69 area meeting may cause the meeting to be called off or may cause the RU to decide not to surface.

b6
b7C
b7D
b7E

San Francisco accordingly will postpone any further overt action concerning the RU until after the area meeting in January at which time our investigative efforts against the RU will be re-evaluated in terms of the decision reached by the RU at that meeting.

If the RU decides to surface, this office will be freed of the necessity of conducting covert investigation in order to protect [] and will be then free to conduct overt investigation of the RU and its membership.

b7D
b7E

In view of the information set out in the attached LHM, San Francisco believes that at this time our investigative efforts must be concentrated on investigation leading to the identification of weapons in the possession of the RU and identification of the site of their weapons cache.

San Francisco further wishes to point out that precipitate disruptive activity against the RU at this point may jeopardize the placing of informants in the RU whereas once the RU has surfaced, if such is their decision, we will be in a better position to target individuals against the organization.

Liaison has been set up with CII in this matter and this office will be advised weekly of the identity of the individuals utilizing the Alameda County Gun Range.

In connection with locating possible arms and explosive cache of the Palo Alto local of the RU, it has been determined that The Resistance in Palo Alto in late 1967 purchased twenty acres of land in an isolated area of the Santa Cruz mountains accessible only by jeep or other four wheel drive vehicle. The real estate dealer handling the transaction states that one could shoot a rifle on this property for days on end and no one would ever hear it. It is noted that both BRUCE FRANKLIN and [redacted] of the Palo Alto local of the RU have had past affiliation with one of the two Resistance representatives purchasing this property.

Through cooperation with the U.S. Navy at Moffett Field, this property will be subject to an aerial photo reconnaissance on 1/15/69, and during the week of 1/20/69, weather permitting, SAs of this office will make a physical survey of the property with the cooperation of the Fire Rangers. It is contemplated that if arms and/or explosives are found the Rangers will refer it to the Santa Cruz SO for appropriate action without the Bureau's interest being disclosed and San Francisco will attempt to insure that subsequent events receive appropriate press attention.

In connection with the above, it is interesting to note that on 1/7/69, [redacted] BRUCE FRANKLIN, indicated to [redacted] that they were [redacted]

Introduction

There is, of course, a limited value to statements which try to describe in a few words any living society. Nevertheless, the world revolutionary movement has produced a body of ideas drawn from objective reality and tested in political struggle. The following elementary theses contain a core of ideas which must be developed, concretized, and deepened through application to American class struggle. They form the basis for our revolutionary perspective for the United States.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We are aware that what follows represents only a primitive understanding of the reality of the American revolution. Its greatest shortcoming is that it lacks detailed understanding of the methods to be employed in our aims. We need to develop our ability to accomplish, together with others, our many pressing tasks. But we are not discouraged. We know that the program of a party at any time is less important than its conscientious application to serving the people, in practicing criticism and self-criticism in summing up its work, and to developing a thorough struggle against bourgeois self-interest in membership and leadership, and against opportunism in organizational affairs.

We are determined to do apply ourselves. And we invite others who are in general agreement with our views and are willing to assume part of the responsibility for their implementation to join with us in preparing and undertaking the path of struggle.

The Present Situation and the Goal

American monopoly capitalism not only oppresses the working class of the United States; it extends its tentacles of exploitation throughout the world, most viciously in Asia, Africa and Latin America, where this imperialist system extracts, at the point of a gun, super-profits from super-exploitation. The present period of history is marked by the struggles of these peoples against American imperialism: today the focal point of these struggles is Vietnam; tomorrow it may be Bolivia, or Thailand, Eastern Africa or the Middle East.

As the peoples of the world increasingly seize the initiative in their global confrontation with U.S. imperialism, the ability of monopoly capitalism to resolve its contradictions with the American working class becomes progressively limited, setting the stage for the seizure of state power by the working class. It is, therefore, a primary revolutionary duty of Americans to build a militant united front of workers and progressive sectors of the middle classes against American imperialism.

Because our ruling class is the main prop of world imperialism, the American revolutionary has a special responsibility to the peoples of the world. Their victories are our victories and whatever we can accomplish to weaken our oppressor is of multifold benefit to their struggles. We believe that it is important for the revolutionary socialist in the U.S. to recognize and accept this responsibility.

It is not possible, however, for U.S. workers, in their great majority to unite against American imperialism unless their class consciousness is heightened through the political work of revolutionization. This includes not only the consciousness of their own exploitation which, for the most part, they already possess, but must also include an understanding of the inseparable inter-relationship between monopoly exploitation of American workers and its super-exploitation of the peoples of the colonial and semi-colonial world. And, beyond this, must include a consciousness of their own power to be the decisive force in the defeat of their class enemy, the monopoly capitalist ruling class.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Building opposition to American imperialism will also lay the foundation for a fight against a future ~~STRUGGLE~~ after the attainment of socialism-- specifically against the tendency that will then arise to enjoy the fruits of a rationalized and unfettered American economy without sufficient regard to raising the standard of living in the underdeveloped world.

A special comment on Black people within the United States is required: Black people are an imported colonial people, brought to this country in chains and dispersed throughout it. Robbed of their land and resources and divested of their cultural heritage, Black people today are forced into oppressed communities, exploited by absentee white business interests, and controlled and contained by an occupying army of ~~Black and white mercenaries~~. Because of their particular geographic situation-- dispersed in concentrations among the larger population-- it is extremely unlikely that Black people can win total liberation before American imperialism is definitively destroyed. Also, Black people are, in their overwhelming majority, working people. Therefore, while they are a colonial people whose immediate struggle is closely linked with those of the people of Asia, Africa, and Latin America, they are, at the same time, in the forefront of the proletarian movement in the United States and will ultimately be joined by the white working class to deal the death blow to monopoly capitalism.

That the struggle for Black liberation at present surpasses, in revolutionary militancy, the struggle of the working class against exploitation emphasizes the need for revolutionaries to link up with the working class, develop therein increasing support for the demands of Black people and increasing struggle against their common exploiters. Our victory lies in the revolutionary unity of the exploited.

It is our conviction that the American working class, Black and white, and its allies will smash the state apparatus controlled by the monopoly capitalists and set up their own form of State: The Dictatorship of the Proletariat. The socialist state will embody the highest form of democracy ever achieved in the United States. It will eliminate the exploitation of labor; carry out democratic economic planning; establish "self-determination" as the inalienable right for all national minorities including a separate territory if so desired; insure basic human needs of food, clothing, housing, education, and culture for all people; and defend the socialist state against armed counter-revolution.

To this end we pledge our efforts and our lives and resolve to further this goal through all the immediate struggles of our exploited people.

Theses on American Monopoly Capitalism

I. The class basis of U.S. society.

Who are our enemies? Who are our friends? The central theoretical task of revolutionary collectives is to analyze the economic and political status of American classes and their attitudes toward the revolution. Only then can a revolutionary line emerge, and with it the beginnings of a revolutionary party.

The basic consideration to be made in defining and understanding classes is how they relate to the productive process, that is, what is produced, how it is produced, and how the products are exchanged. As complex as that economic structure is, it is the basis of all social structure and the root of all social change. To begin to understand it and to be capable of revolutionizing it, the first step is to distinguish between two antagonistic classes: the monopoly capitalists, who own and control the means of production, distribution, and communication; and the workers, who are controlled and forced to work for the profit of the monopoly capitalists.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The second, more difficult step in the development of a comprehensive class analysis is a breakdown of all the classes in American society. An understanding of their economic inter-relationships will indicate the extent of their revolutionary development and potential, and will reveal their relative importance to the success of the revolution. This understanding must necessarily come from much experience in working and struggling with the people who collectively make up a particular class, and from a detailed knowledge of the inner workings of American corporate capitalism.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The central complication that arises in even the most rudimentary analysis of classes is the question of the colonized people within America: the black, brown, yellow, and red people. While they are representative of the most oppressed sectors of the working class, they are also closely linked, in condition and struggle, to the people of the Third World. As such, these colonies within America embody elements of both the internal and external struggles against the American ruling class. On the one hand is the struggle of the American working class against monopoly capitalism; on the other hand is the struggle of the colonized people of the world against American imperialism.

II. Racism and U.S. monopoly capitalism

Racism, like national chauvinism, tribalism, and anti-semitism, is the ideological product of a class divided society. These ideologies all serve to divide the oppressed classes and strengthen the oppressors. Present-day racism, directed primarily against Black people, Chicanos, American Indians, and Latin Americans, draws its strength from monopoly capitalism's basic economic strategy designed to maintain a surplus of labor and prevent the unity of the exploited.

All aspects of bourgeois ideology that penetrate the working class must be struggled against and overcome. This is especially true for racist ideology, which is very strong in the white working class and prevents its advance. We must expose this ideology continuously and defeat it in practice before the necessary unity of the working class against monopoly capitalism can be achieved. Thereafter the establishment of a socialist state will go a long way toward the elimination of present-day racism; the advent of communism will wipe it out entirely.

III. The State as an instrument of class rule.

Government in the U.S. (the courts, legislatures, police forces, bureaucracies, etc.), reflects the clash of the antagonistic interests of the exploited and the exploiters. Government institutions, dominated by representatives of the propertied classes, are the theater of operations where conflicts within the capitalist class can be peacefully mediated, and where interclass conflicts can be resolved on terms most favorable to the capitalist class.

"The state," writes Lenin, "is the product and the manifestation of the irreconcilability of class antagonisms. The state arises when, where, and to the extent that class antagonisms cannot be objectively reconciled. And conversely, the existence of the state proves that the class antagonisms are irreconcilable.... The state is a special organization of force; it is the organization of violence for the oppression of the working class."

IV. Consequences of the capitalist state.

The exploitative rule of the American capitalist class is synonymous with and inevitably produces unemployment and poverty, militarism and imperialism, racism and chauvinism.

In addition, American monopoly capitalism breeds a culture of exploitation and dehumanization on an individual as well as collective level: competition is valued over cooperation; oppression, jealousy, or acerbity, rather than mutual respect, form the basis for personal relations; the sciences, subsidized by the large corporations or by the capitalist state itself, are perverted to the demands of private profit and the class interests of the monopolists; and artists are forced to compromise themselves before a manipulated market place, thus insuring that those ideas compatible with class domination-- "rigid individualism," the irrationality and emptiness of human existence, the indelible apathy and ignorance of the masses, racism and chauvinism, subtle and overt-- are hammered into the collective consciousness.

V. The abolition of capitalism's consequences.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The only way to abolish the exploitation of labor and the decadent society built on this foundation is to destroy the state power of the exploiting class: the American monopoly capitalists.

In the struggle against unemployment and poverty, militarism and imperialism, racism, chauvinism, and war, and in the development of a revolutionary culture of masses in motion, the necessary numbers, strength, consciousness, and unity to overthrow capitalism will be achieved.

VI. The necessity for armed struggle.

"An oppressed class which does not strive to learn to use arms, to acquire arms, deserves to be treated like slaves. We cannot forget, unless we have become bourgeois pacifists or opportunists, that we are living in a class society, that there is no way out, and there can be none, except by means of the class struggle and the overthrow of the power of the ruling class.

"In every class society, whether it is based on slavery, serfdom or, as at present, on wage labor, the oppressing class is armed. The modern standing army, and even the modern militia... (National Guard)... represents the bourgeoisie armed against the proletariat. This is such an elementary truth that it is hardly necessary to dwell on it. It is sufficient to recall the use of troops against strikers, which occurs in all capitalist countries without exception. The fact that the bourgeoisie is armed against the proletariat is one of the biggest, most fundamental, most important facts in modern capitalist society.

"Only ~~after~~ the proletariat has disarmed the bourgeoisie will it be able, without betraying its world-historical mission, to throw all armaments on the scrapheap; the proletariat will undoubtedly do this, but only when this condition has been fulfilled, certainly not before" (Lenin).

We recognize the eventual need for organized armed struggle against the power of the state, and assume the responsibilities of revolutionaries in the preparation of that struggle. The people must be armed, organized and under the direction of the revolutionary party serving the working class. We further recognize that the revolution will not end with the seizure of state power. That power must be retained and consolidated under the political rule of the working class, that is, the Dictatorship of the Proletariat. It will be under the political leadership of the working class that the secure transition to socialism will be effected.

The recognition of class struggle leads inevitably to the recognition of the necessity for violent revolution and the political rule of the working class. It is the task of the revolutionary party of the working class, guided by Marxist-Leninism, to lead the people to victory. The organized repressive violence of the state must be met with the organized revolutionary violence of the people. POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

Thesis on Building an American Revolutionary Party

The last few years have witnessed a thrilling escalation of protest and confrontation to the oppressive policies of the rulers of America. The mounting struggles for Black liberation and against the imperialist aggression in Vietnam have swelled the ranks of those who recognize the enemy and dare to confront it. Significant also in this regard have been the struggles against wide-spread poverty, the growing number and length of working class strikes, and the revolt of students against the controlled educational system that perpetuates a caste system and attempts to transform students into the servants of reaction. As the results of these protests are evaluated, their limitations are recognized by an increasing number of dedicated activists, resulting in a developing consciousness of the need to transform the protest movement into a revolutionary movement; a movement capable not merely of being a thorn in the side of the ruling class, but one capable of destroying that class and creating a new society; a movement that is not primitive, fragmented and directionless, but one guided by a revolutionary party based on Marxist-Leninist principles. How are we to transform today's radical movement into a revolutionary movement? History shows that revolutionary movements are successful only when they are guided by highly-organized, well-disciplined revolutionary parties. History also shows that revolutionary parties are only successful when there are revolutionary masses. The people need a party and the party needs the people; neither can succeed without the other.

Presently in America there is neither a revolutionary party nor revolutionary masses. The movement is diffuse, loosely connected, and primitive in organization and ideology. The most immediate and urgent practical task facing American revolutionaries is to establish an organization of revolutionaries capable of maintaining the energy, the continuity, and the direction of the political struggle, thereby creating the conditions for the emergence of a revolutionary party.

How should revolutionaries carry out this most important task? Although there are individuals and groups in the United States seeking to play a revolutionary role, there is no single revolutionary party which actually leads the American working people or seems likely to have a promising future in this regard. It is also unlikely that a revolutionary party will develop strictly as a result of the day-to-day struggles of the working class. Consequently, we think it necessary for individuals with a revolutionary perspective to form collectives which link up with working people and serve their class interests. These groups should accept a collective discipline, carry out criticism and self-criticism of their political work, and apply the most advanced revolutionary concepts to all their common efforts. By doing this we hope to move toward the development of an American revolutionary party. We encourage revolutionaries in other areas to build collectives for this purpose.

Most groups that call themselves Marxist-Leninist at the present time are predominantly white and have no base in the Black people's movement. On the other hand, it is clear that among the Black people, there are groups, though not calling themselves Marxist-Leninist, that are applying the scientific experience of revolution to the liberation of their people. And it is precisely from these groups that the greatest present advances, both in practice and theory, are coming. We believe that a major portion of the leadership of a Marxist-Leninist Party in the U.S. will come from these groups. The Marxist-Leninist Party is the general staff of the working class struggle. There is one enemy, monopoly capitalism, and to defeat it we need and will achieve a single general staff.

AT THE PRESENT TIME, THE BUILDING OF COLLECTIVES ON A LOCAL BASIS AND THE EXCHANGE OF EXPERIENCES BETWEEN THEM CAN CONTRIBUTE THE MOST TO THE CREATION IN THE NEAR FUTURE OF A MARXIST-LENINIST PARTY.

A revolutionary collective serves the working people: both their immediate and long term interests. It does this by linking up with them, learning from them, fighting in their ranks for better conditions or in resistance to an attack upon them, and by helping to develop a more advanced revolutionary theory for the advancement of the struggle to a higher stage. At the same time, it binds every effort towards victory in the immediate struggle, it gives special attention to raising the popular consciousness, and discovering and training revolutionaries.

Organizational Principles

A revolutionary organization should base itself on Marxism-Leninism, not as a dogma, but as a constantly developing body of thought that unifies revolutionary theory with revolutionary practice. The organization must apply Marxism-Leninism, as it has developed through Mao, to the concrete situation within the United States, in order to prepare the conditions for the liberation of working people and mankind.

A revolutionary collective should be composed of a relatively small number of highly dedicated, well-disciplined persons who are willing to subordinate individual preferences to collective decisions and who are capable of working in accordance with an equitable, rational, and efficient division of labor. The collective should be the focal point for intellectual activity, practical activity, and an effort to integrate the two.

Intellectual activity refers to study and analysis. The collectives must study the history of revolutionary theory and practice and must consider how that history can be applied to the current situation in America. At the same time, the collectives must analyze the present situation in their localities and in America in general, for knowledge of revolutionary history is useless if we are ignorant of the contemporary conditions to which we want to apply it. What is the nature of the class struggle in various localities? What can be generalized of the nature of the class struggle in America? What can revolutionary history teach us about how to relate to these struggles? These are the primary questions that revolutionary collectives must attempt to answer.

Practical activity refers both to the formulation of tactics for day-to-day struggle and also to the development of a strategy which can place day-to-day tactics in a comprehensive revolutionary context. The collectives must work strenuously to relate the development of tactics and strategy to the development of study and analysis. If it is true that a revolutionary party cannot exist without revolutionary masses, it is also true that it cannot successfully lead the masses to victory if it fails to unify intellectual activity with practical activity. In striving to achieve this unity, collectives should employ the principle of criticism and self-criticism, which is designed not to embarrass individuals, but to improve their political work.

What kind of relationship should exist between the collectives? At first the relationship will involve little more than exchange of information and experience and perhaps some joint regional political activity when it seems useful. Eventually, however, the collectives ought to relate to each other on the basis of democratic centralism. Mao Tse-tung has summed up the cardinal principles of democratic centralism: "(1) the individual is subordinate to the organization; (2) the minority is subordinate to the majority; (3) the lower level is subordinate to the higher level; (4) the entire membership is subordinate to the central committee."

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Democratic centralism should be the principle that ultimately defines the structural relationship between collectives. Mass line should be the principle that defines the structural relationship between collectives and other progressive groups and people. What is mass line? "Every communist working among the masses, writes Mao, 'should be their friend and not a boss over them, an indefatigable teacher and not a bureaucratic politician. At no time and in no circumstances should a communist place his personal interests first; he should subordinate them to the interests of the nation and of the masses....Communists should work in harmony with all progressives outside the party and endeavor to unite the native people to do away with whatever is undesirable. It must be realized that communists form only a small section of the nation, and that there are large numbers of progressives and activists outside the party with whom we must work. It is entirely wrong to think that we alone are good and no one else is any good.'"

Within the collectives: study, class analysis, the development of tactics and strategy, a continual effort to integrate study and class analysis with tactics and strategy, the practice of criticism and self-criticism in making this effort. Between the collectives: at first, informal exchanges of information and experience and occasional joint regional political activity; eventually a more formal national organization based on democratic centralism. Between the collectives and other progressive groups and people: the application of mass line. These are the principles, we believe, that form the basis for the creation and growth of revolutionary collectives.

We in the Bay Area Revolutionary Union publish this paper with the twin aims of encouraging the creation of revolutionary collectives in other areas and of contacting groups that may already be in existence with similar aims. We undertake for the next immediate period to service the exchange of experience between groups until better methods are devised through consultation and agreement.

"Make trouble, fail, make trouble again, fail again...till their doom; that is the logic of the imperialists and all reactionaries the world over in dealing with the people's cause, and they will never go against this logic. This is a Marxist law. When we say 'imperialism is ferocious,' we mean that its nature will never change, that the imperialists will never lay down their butcher knives, that they will never become Buddhas, till their doom.

"Fight, fail, fight again, fail again, fight again...till their victory; that is the logic of the people, and they too will never go against this logic. This is another Marxist law. The Russian people's revolution followed this law, and so has the Chinese people's revolution."

can be educated in Marxism-Leninism. The [] are working with an armed collective of some eighteen Peace and Freedom Party individuals who meet in the [] home. They were characterized as "almost Marxist-Leninist." The [] are working with another collective of high school kids and others and a new RU group is to be formed in the San Jose area.

(2) Discussion and criticism of RU Prospectus (a copy of which is attached for Bureau and recipients) which sets forth RU line and aims. This will be made public in its revised form after the RU surfaces.

The attention of the Bureau and recipient offices is directed to Page 4 wherein the RU states, "We recognize the eventual need for organized armed struggle against the power of the State, and assume the responsibilities of revolutionaries in the preparation of that struggle. The people must be armed, organized and under the direction of the revolutionary party serving the working class.... The recognition of class struggle leads inevitably to the recognition of the necessity for violent revolution and the political rule of the working class.... The organized repressive violence of the state must be met with the organized revolutionary violence of the people."

(3) Surfacing:

There was a long argument between LEIBEL BERGMAN, who does not want to surface, and the supporters of BRUCE FRANKLIN, who want immediate surfacing. A compromise was finally reached that the Prospectus is to be revised and a paper is to be written by [] and [] on "In Defense of Marxism-Leninism". The revision and the new paper are to be completed before the next area meeting on 3/23/69, after which time the RU will surface. BERGMAN stated during the argument that even if the RU surfaces, he will remain in the background and further stated that he sees the role of the RU as in support of the Black Panther Party.

At the end of the meeting, a twenty-nine page treatise on underground medicine was passed out. It reportedly was prepared by an underground medicine group at Stanford Medical School which meets at the home of RU members, [] and []

ReSFairtel 1/23/69 advising of developments at the RU area meeting held on [REDACTED] at Palo Alto, California and enclosing a Prospectus which will be made public in revised form when the RU surfaces following the next area meeting scheduled for 3/23/69. (X)(U)

The Prospectus clearly indicates the revolutionary pre-Chicom Marxist-Leninist character of the RU and the organization's propensity for violence is obvious based upon evidence developed that its members are accumulating weapons and explosives while engaging in firearms and guerrilla warfare training. (X)(U)

The self-stated purpose of the RU Prospectus is to encourage the creation and growth of local revolutionary collectives in other areas and to establish contact with similar groups looking towards the creation in the near future of a national Marxist-Leninist party in allegiance with the Communist Party of China. Reliable informants have indicated the RU membership in the San Francisco area now numbers approximately 40 individuals organized in three functioning locals. It is most significant, reliable information has been developed indicating the RU is in current contact with similar revolutionary groups in San Francisco, Chicago,

Los Angeles and the San Mateo County and San Jose areas of California. There can be no doubt the influence and the threat presented by the RU is rapidly expanding. (X) (U)

(N) You are requested to immediately submit specific recommendations looking towards exposure, disruption and total neutralization of the RU and its membership prior to its scheduled date of surfacing. Among the techniques which should be considered, possibly for enactment in the order listed, are the following: (X) (U)

1. Mass synchronized interviews of all RU members, as well as individuals who until recently have been members, including individuals identified with the organization's youth affiliate the Peninsula Red Guard or other militant groups closely identified with the organization. The purpose of these initial interviews would be to develop PSIs while forcing curtailment of RU activities. Appropriate diversion techniques should be developed to protect the security of [redacted] while endeavoring to compromise actual RU members as alleged informants. (X) (U)

b7D
 b7E

2. Where local laws or statutes permit, efforts should be considered to have local authorities interrogate RU members known to possess arms and explosives and where possible to confiscate such material. (X) (U)

3. Consideration should be given to causing the subpoena of RU members before a local or federal grand jury so they may be questioned in detail regarding their RU affiliation and revolutionary objectives. Again, the objective would be to develop PSIs, to implicate RU members as informants while protecting [redacted] and to curtail RU activities. In this regard, all action necessarily would be coordinated with the local U. S. Attorney after Department clearance. An effort would be made to permit the testimony of [redacted] under circumstances protecting [redacted] identity thus enabling continuance of [redacted] coverage. In addition to developing violations of federal and local laws, at or following the grand jury hearings consideration should be given to imprisoning or obtaining evidence from RU members through use of the Immunity Law.  RE: REVOLUTIONARY UNION (RU)

4. At an appropriate time, widespread discrediting publicity to the RU and its members, including its founders and most active leaders Howard Bruce Franklin and Chicon agent Leibol Bergman, should be considered. This might be accomplished through established cooperative news media contacts possibly assisted; through documentation allegedly prepared by the John Birch Society, the Black Panther Party or competitive communist groups such as the CP, USA, the CP, USA (Marxist-Leninist) and the Progressive Labor Party. (X)(U)

The above suggestions are for your consideration and are not intended to be all encompassing. No action to effect these techniques should be initiated by your office without prior Bureau authorization.

In view of the desire of the Bureau to promptly expose and neutralize the RU, you should assign sufficient personnel to the investigation so that all RU members will be included on the Security Index prior to the enactment of any recommended exposure, disruptive or neutralizing techniques.

Your specific recommendations should be submitted to the Bureau on or before 2/12/69.

Re San Francisco airtels dated 12/19/68, 1/15
and 1/23/69.

San Francisco airtel dated 12/19/68 reflected that investigative efforts against the RU would be re-evaluated in light of development at the area meeting of the RU, and San Francisco airtel dated 1/23/69, contained a summary of developments at the [REDACTED] RU area meeting.
Set forth below are results of this matter in light of most recent developments: (X)(U)

In any discussion of the RU, it is incumbent upon us not to lose sight of the essential nature of this organization, that it is an intelligence operation and not merely another domestic new left organization advocating the violent overthrow of this country. We must consider it as a tool of the Chicoms to be manipulated through BERGMAN to the advantage of Red China. (X)(U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LEIBEL BERGMAN returned to the U.S. from Red China in late 1967, stating that he had a mission to recruit promising leftists pro-MAO youth for clandestine training in Red China against the day of Peking's need. It has been obvious from the beginning that BERGMAN's mission lay not in the espionage field but in the no less dangerous agitprop area.

In early 1968 BERGMAN formed the RU, recruiting some of the most promising young talent in the Bay area. Between that time and the present the RU has studied MAO and STALIN, analyzed and interpreted the situation in the U.S. along M-L lines and developed a Marxist-Leninist line for the defeat of U.S. monopoly capitalism, as set forth in the RU Prospectus submitted with San Francisco airtel dated 1/23/69. During this period membership in the RU has remained fairly constant at a hardcore of thirty-four. With the development of this hardcore membership and a viable line, the RU is now ready to surface and extend its influence. San Francisco regards the year 1968 as phase 1 of BERGMAN's mission.

As the Bureau is aware, prior to the return of BERGMAN from Red China, we had no firsthand information as to the modus operandi the Chicoms had used or would use in making a penetration in this country, and it is believed that this investigation to date, through both live and sophisticated coverage, has developed extremely valuable information in our intelligence responsibilities vis-a-vis the Chicoms.

It is the considered opinion of this office that BERGMAN's intelligence mission and the RU is about to enter a second phase. There is no doubt but that BERGMAN knew he was going to Europe to meet the Chicoms prior to attending the 1/19/69 RU area meeting. According to [redacted] at that meeting BERGMAN fought hard against the RU surfacing and was finally able to effect a compromise on that issue, thereby possibly delaying the decision until after he returns from his meeting with the Chicoms. [redacted] noted that it was obvious that BERGMAN was seeking to delay the issue and that even his very close associate, LARRY HARRIS, while supporting him criticized him for delaying tactics. Consequently, it would appear that the decision whether to surface or not is an extremely critical point in BERGMAN's operation.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to [] to date BERGMAN has managed to minimize any connection between himself and the Chicoms and has on several occasions told that informant that he does not want anything to happen which will bring himself and [] to public attention, particularly any relationship between them and Red China. However, BERGMAN is now faced with a very strong movement within the RU for surfacing and his instructions from the Chicoms on this issue will be most significant. As viewed by this office, two possibilities exist: (a) the Chicoms will agree with surfacing in order to more effectively broaden the base of the RU, and upon his return BERGMAN will withdraw his objections to surfacing; or (b) the Chicoms will insist that the RU remain covert, thus leaving BERGMAN in the position of having to explain to the RU or at least to key influential members of the RU that he has discussed surfacing with the Chicoms and for stated reasons they believe that surfacing is premature. It is believed that BERGMAN would be most reluctant to have to take such a step which would reveal his connections with the Chicoms. If the RU then insists on surfacing, BERGMAN will either have to go along with surfacing contrary to his instructions from the Chicoms or must withdraw from the RU and start another covert group along the same lines.

b6
b7C
b7D
b7E

It is the belief of this office that since surfacing is such a critical issue if we, by premature action, revealed our knowledge of and interest in the RU and the Chicoms wish it to remain covert, we may well force BERGMAN to withdraw from the RU and start a parallel covert group.

It is the strong opinion of this office that in the interest of the overall picture of our intelligence efforts against the Chicoms our paramount interest at this time is to determine the results of BERGMAN's latest contact with the Chicoms, both through live informants and increased sophisticated coverage and how this contact with the Chicoms will effect the future activity of the RU.

While it would be desirable to engage in counter-intelligence activity to expose and disrupt the RU, thus rendering it ineffective, it is not believed that such activity at this time will serve the best interests of our intelligence responsibilities. Since the RU membership has remained essentially the same over the past year, there is no reason to believe that membership will increase by any substantial number over the next several months. By attempting to neutralize the RU at this time, it is feared that we will only succeed in depriving ourselves of an all important opportunity to continue penetration of this Chicom intelligence operation.

San Francisco believes that our investigative goal at this point is to expand our coverage in this matter to obtain a clearer picture of what the Chicoms are attempting to accomplish through the utilization of BERGMAN as an intelligence agent. For example, BERGMAN at the last area meeting of the RU stressed the importance of the RU's contact with the Black Panther Party, and on 1/20/69, he indicated to [redacted] that he is in touch with [redacted] currently [redacted] of the BPP. The instructions which BERGMAN receives from the Chicoms regarding the BPP and the racial question in the U.S. as a whole would be extremely important in the Bureau's overall responsibility to assess the foreign influence in racial matters.

b7C
b7D
b7E

Another extremely important area and one of the most important within our intelligence responsibilities is to determine the extent of direct foreign influence in the present campus confrontations and the extending of "destruction of the establishment" goal from the campus to the working community and society in general. Extremely significant will be the exposure of the tactics the Chicoms will have BERGMAN follow and the extent to which violence is to be utilized in accomplishing their goals.

This office feels strongly that the type of information necessary to accomplish the above objectives can be developed only through live informant coverage and increased sophisticated coverage. The desirability of interviewing various members of the RU in an effort to counter or curtail the activities of the RU has been carefully weighed by this office and it is the considered opinion of this office that such interviews should not be conducted at this time unless facts developed indicate that a particular individual would have definite informant potential. In arriving at this conclusion, it is pointed out that we are dealing with a breed who, with the exception of BERGMAN, have made no secret of their revolutionary stand and basically have little regard for the truth and, if willing to talk at all, would make only self-serving statements.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

However, on an individual basis every opportunity to cause friction within or defection from the RU of any individual will be carefully exploited where such can be done discreetly and without revealing our interest in the RU.

San Francisco believes that investigation at this point should be directed toward intensified investigation, including sophisticated coverage, of the most active and influential RU members in order to determine through their contacts and activities in other groups the extent of RU influence in and guidance of other subversive groups and activities in this area. Toward this end, it is believed that intensified investigation of BRUCE FRANKLIN and [redacted] of Palo Alto, [redacted] and [redacted] of San Francisco, and LARRY HARRIS, [redacted] and VERN BAUN in the East Bay, would be most productive and San Francisco is initiating such intensified investigation.

San Francisco wishes to point out its belief that we must borrow a page from the Chinese book and exercise patience in order to achieve our ultimate goal and not permit our enthusiasms to allow immediate tactical victories to jeopardize our ultimate aim.
